How to Watch UFC 257 Online in the U.S.

We'll cut to the chase: There isn't a free UFC 257 live stream. ESPN+ has the exclusive broadcast rights to the event and it has teamed up with UFC President Dana White to make sure those who facilitate illegal broadcasts get their comeuppance. So, how much does it cost to watch UFC 257 online? It's not cheap — the UFC 257 PPV is available to existing ESPN+ subscribers for $70.

ESPN+ is offering a $40 discount on the UFC 257 PPV to new customers who sign up before the event starts at 10 PM ET/7 PM PT. Usually, after handing over $60 for an annual ESPN+ subscription, the UFC 257 PPV would usually set you back $70, but ESPN+ is bundling the two for only $90. Seeing as it's the exclusive broadcaster for UFC in 2021, it's a must-have for fight fans.

If you're reading this at least a couple of hours before the event, you may like to know that ESPN+ has the first bout between Conor McGregor and Dustin Poirier (UFC 147) in its archives — which can be accessed for free by ESPN+ subscribers — so you can relive McGregor's victorious first-round knockout before the two re-enter the octagon at UFC 257 on UFC Fight Island, Abu Dhabi.
