

TV*! Green Bay Packers vs Tampa Bay Buccaneers Live Streamings 24 Jan 2021

Green Bay's defense was a presence as well, as it got past Los Angeles' offensive line to sack QB Jared Goff four times for a total loss of 26 yards. It was a group effort with three guys contributing.

Meanwhile, Tampa Bay earned some more postseason success in their game last week. They were able to grind out a solid win over the New Orleans Saints, winning 30-20. The score was all tied up at the break 13-13, but the Buccaneers were the better team in the second half. It was another big night for their QB Tom Brady, who passed for two TDs and 199 yards on 33 attempts in addition to punching in one rushing touchdown. Brady ended up with a passer rating of 125.20.

The Bucs tried to run early and often against the Saints last week, and it didn't really work out for them. Only once they shifted to a more pass-centric attack did they start hanging crooked numbers on the scoreboard -- but even that required a great deal of help from the defense, setting them up with short fields. Tom Brady didn't exactly tear things up, throwing for only 199 yards on 33 attempts.

The Packers will host the conference championship for the second straight season and for the fourth time in seven years. Rodgers and the Packers will be playing for their first trip to the Super Bowl since the 2010 season, while the Buccs will try for their first trip since 2002. A Tampa win would mark Brady's 10th Super Bowl appearance.

Odds makers currently have the (11-5) Buccaneers as 3.5-point road underdogs against the (13-3) Packers. The Over/Under is 51.5.
