Game 6: New York Rangers @ Pittsburgh Penguins 1/24/2021: lines, how to watch
A rare Sunday evening home game to end the Penguins homestand

Who: New York Rangers (1-2-1, 4 points, 7th place Eastern Division) @ Pittsburgh Penguins
(3-2-0, 6 points, 4th place in the Eastern Division)

When: 7:00 p.m. eastern

How to Watch: AT&T Sportsnet in Pittsburgh, MSG+ in the greater New York area, and you can also catch it on ESPN+. In Canada, check SNE, SNO and SNP in Canada, which now I think they're just making up initials for networks at this point

Opponent Track: The Rangers and Pens will meet next Saturday+Monday in Manhattan, but first the teams split after tonight for two games first. NYR goes to Buffalo for two games on Tuesday/Thursday.

Pens path ahead: The Pens leave town for games on Tuesday/Thursday in Boston and then the Penguins scoot down to NYC to play these same Rangers again next weekend in Madison Square Garden next Saturday (January 30th) and the following Monday (February 1st).

Season Series: The Pens won 4-3 in the shootout on Friday. After tonight and next week's games, PIT/NYR don't meet again until March 7+9, back in the Burgh and then the season series is scheduled to be completed on April 6+8 in NYC.

Recent History: The Pens have points in eight straight games versus NYR (5-0-3), and the Pens are 9-2-3 overall in its last 14 games versus the Rangers.
